~A Fallen Limb~

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says "Grieve Not For Me". Remember the best times, the laughter, and the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day comes we're together again.

Life of Reflections

Jessie James Wright, Sr. affectionately called “Father...” was born on December 24, 1931 to Johnny and Alice Wright in Shaw, Mississippi. Jessie attended school in Shaw Mississippi, later joining and serving in the United States Army during the Korean War. He worked in Communications in the Alaskan Territory before it became a state.

During Jessie’s public career, he has worked in the produce field, as a sandblaster in a shipping yard, and a floor and wall tile installer. Jessie was baptized at Antioch Baptist Church. He married Aquilla Robin in Jacksonville, Florida and to this union five children were born, that includes a set of twins; three boys; and two girls.

Jessie departed this life on Wednesday, February 8, 2017. He was preceded in death by his parents; a son, Jessie James Wright, Jr.; siblings, Betty, Johnny Jr., Lawyer, Laura, Matthew, and Ruthie Mae.

Jessie leaves to cherish his wonderful memories: two sons, Carlos (Vernita) and Theodore; two daughters, Deborah Wyche (Anthony) and Carlyn Clark (Theodore) of Jacksonville, Florida; brothers, Samuel Wright (Louise) of Jacksonville, Florida and Nathaniel Wright of Chicago, Illinois; sisters, Rose Love (Earl) of Chicago, Illinois, Mary Rogers (James), Christine Spears (Dannie) both of Memphis, Tennessee, and Ernestine Bridges (Richard) of Flint, Michigan; 18 grandchildren; 32 great-grandchildren; 4 great great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives, and friends; a special friend, Mary Kelley.

~Daddy’s Favorite Scripture~

1. Make haste, O God, to deliver me; make haste to help me, O Lord.
2. Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek after my soul: let them be turned backward, and put to confusion, that desire my hurt.
3. Let them be turned back for a reward of their shame that say, Aha, aha.
4. Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: and let such as love thy salvation say continually, Let God be magnified.
5. But I am poor and needy: make haste unto me, O God: thou art my help and my deliverer; O Lord, make no tarrying.

~Psalm 70
