Obituary

Mr. Wilbert Henry Moore was born on June 25, 1947 to the late Jetta and Willie Lee Moore, he was the oldest of ten children. Wilbert was a life long resident of Jacksonville, Florida and attended the local schools. He accepted Christ and was added to the body of Christ at a young age. Wilbert later met Lorraine Daniels and from this union three children were born.

Wilbert was called home on Monday, March 5, 2018 at his residence. He was preceded in death by both parents and a brother, Lawrence Moore, Sr.

Wilbert was employed by Canada Dry as a truck driver. He was also self-employed as a carpenter and enjoyed building and repairing. To neighbors and others Wilbert was known as (A.K.A Moby). As a young man in 1964, he built a treehouse that survived Hurricane Dora. Moby also had a love for Muscle Cars, once owning a "57 Chevy". Moby loved and spent most of his free time riding his scooter around the neighborhood visiting and socializing with family and friends. One of his favorite sayings was: "God gave me these hands."

Wilbert leaves to cherish his fond memories: three daughters, Lorraine Daniels, Tammy Daniels, Cunedia (Brian) Cohen; brothers, Harold (Gloria), Warren (Amy), and Robert Moore; sisters, Mary James, Linda Wade, Carolyn (Richard) McNeil, Lillian Scott, Barbara (Benjamin) Nicholas and Lisa Moore; aunt, Delois Rosier, of Jacksonville, Florida; grandchildren, Sharayne, Terrence, Michael, Joseph, David, Antonia, Brian Jr., Carlton, Briana and Brailah; great-grandchildren, Zanariah, Zakyah, Amarian and Joseph Jr.; special cousins, Simon Cull, Carl Hartsfield, Eugene Johnson and Stanley Moore; godbrother, Eugene Sykes; friends, Sugarboy and Crow; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and many sorrowing friends.

"A Tribute To My Daddy"

Already Missing You

What else is there left to say? My first love has passed away! You saw me come in this world and called me your "Baby Girl".

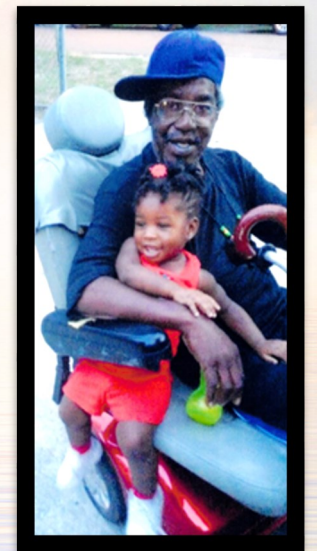

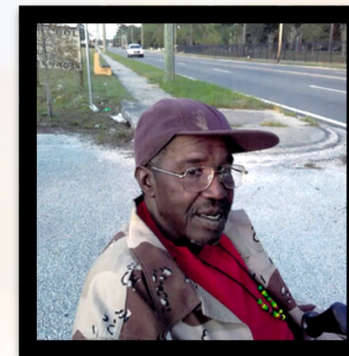

Though the youngest of us three Lorraine, Tammy and then me. I knew by your smiling face, "Baby Girl" was not last place!

Many times I saw the rise of your chest swelling with pride, telling others what we've done, like we were the only ones.

Your praise I'll always admire, for words that lift us higher. Still more than a gift of praise is knowing, for us, you prayed.

Yes, I'll miss the calls we shared, cards and gifts to show we cared. But most of all, it is true, "I'm already missing You"!
