Acknowledgement

The family of the late Mozella Bess Williams wishes to express our many thanks, appreciation and sincere gratitude to each and everyone. Perhaps you sent a card, said a prayer, sent flowers, food or just sat in a chair. Your acts of kindness and expressions of love or sources of strength and consolation, it is our prayer that the grace of God continue to richly bless you. We would appreciate your continued prayers in the days ahead.

~ A Fallen Limb ~

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says "Grieve Not For Me". Remember the best times, the laughter, and the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day comes we're together again.

*Remembering The Life
Of Mozella Hill Bess Williams*

Mother Mozella was born October 18, 1930 to Aaron Hill, Sr. and Sallie B. Turner Hill in Jacksonville, Florida.

Mozella met and married Howard Bess in 1948 and from this union her only child, the precious and wonderful Sandra "Sandy" Sherrylean Bess was born. She later met and married Solomon Williams, whom she shared much love until his death.

Mozella accepted God at an early age. She was a member of King Solomon United Baptist Church, under the leadership of Pastor William Barker. She later moved her membership to Higher Ground COGIC, under the leadership of Elder T L Brisbane, Sr. Pastor, where she was affectionately known as Mother or Mother Mozell.

Mother Mozell was preceded in death by her parents, Aaron and Sallie B. Hill; her loving husband, Solomon Williams, her only child, Sandra S. Bess; brothers, Johnnie B., Amos, Aaron B. and Thomas Hill.

Mother Mozell leaves to cherish her memories: a sister-in-law, Annette Hill; nieces, nephews, cousins and many other loving family members and friends.
