23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies, thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Expressions of Gratitude

Our family is grateful to everyone for personal visits, telephone calls, cards, food and floral arrangements. Your thoughtfulness has touched our hearts; we are especially appreciative for every prayer whispered on behalf of our family. May God continue to bless and keep you.

In Loving Memory
Of
Bessie J. Colbert

Bessie was born into the union of Bishop Willie and Annabell Gordon on January 31, 1931 in Charleston, South Carolina. She was educated in Charleston County.

Bessie met and married Jack Colbert, for over 60 years their marriage was solid and binding until the Lord called him home; from this union fourteen children were born. Bessie and Jack moved to Jacksonville, Florida in 1962. Bessie was always a housewife, she loved life and her family. She enjoyed cooking, she always had a pleasant demeanor wherever you met her.

Bessie departed this life on Wednesday, October 10, 2018 at Lanier Terrace Senior Nursing Facilities. Of Bessie's thirteen siblings, eight of them: Mary, Almarie, Virginia, Leo, Johnny, Louis, Leroy and Edward have gone to eternal rest. Bessie had six children to precede her in death: Frank Brook, Bernard, Jack Jr., Mark S., Kimberly and Barbara Colbert.

Bessie leaves to cherish her memories, George Kelley, Bessie L. Days, Tommy G., Gary O., Roma C. Colbert, Donna F. Johnson, Barry Edwards, Angelo D. Colbert and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great great-grandchildren, nephews, nieces, other family members and friends.
