Obituary

Leatha Deloris Hixon (Slim) was born December 21, 1946 to Xenophone W. Hixon and Constance Thompson-Hixon in Jacksonville, Florida. She attended the local schools, graduating from Stanton High School.

Leatha departed this life on Sunday, January 6, 2019. She was preceded in death by her parents, Xenophone Hixon and Constance Hixon; son, Terrance Hixon; brothers, Xenophone Hixon, Jr. and William Green; sisters, Louise Thompson and Johnnie Mae Spaulding.

Leatha leaves to treasure loving memories with her daughter, Phyllis Hixon; sisters, Mildred Ponder (E.W.) of Ft. Lauderdale, Florida and Hettie F. Copeland of Augusta, Georgia; 3 grandchildren, Zachary Hixon (Brittany), Derick Hixon and Ebony Hixon; 4 great-grandchildren; several nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of sorrowing friends.

"To Those I Love & Those That Love Me"

When I am gone, release me, let me go; I have so many things to see and do; you must not tie yourself to me with tears; be happy that we had so many years; I gave you my love, you can only guess how much you gave me in happiness; I thank you for the love you have shown but now it's time
I traveled on alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a while that we must part, so bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on so if you need me, call and I will come though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near. And if you listen with your heart, you will hear, all my love around you, loud and clear. And then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you at Heaven's gate with a smile and a "Welcome Home."
