OBITUARY

JAMES R. LUNDY JR., son of the late James R. Lundy Sr., and late Flora Gladys Harris, was born December 15, 1939 in Jacksonville, Florida.

James departed this life on April 10th, 2024 in Community Hospice George and Margaret Morris Center. James received his early education and High School education in Jacksonville School District.

James had four passions in his life, his faith and love for Jesus Christ, the love for his wife and family, ministering and cooking.

James received his license to preach the Gospel in 2003, his certificate of ordination in 2007, his Lay Minister License in 1999 and his degree of Bachelor of Religions Arts in Biblical Studies in 1996.

James moved to Wilmington Delaware in the late 1950's, he began working for Chrystler in 1960 and remained there until his retirement in 1993. He met and fell in love with his wife Barbara Lundy in the early 1970's. The two of them shared a union for nearly 20 years before moving to James hometown of Jacksonville, Florida and getting married in 1994 where they remained together up until his passing, their union lasted over 50 yrs.

James was preceded in death by his son, James Lundy III; daughter, Theresa Lundy; brothers, Ernest Pitt, Willie D. Jr., Johnny, Harold, Terry, and Virgil McClendon; sisters, Betty Surrency, Cassandra Sherman, Maxine Reid, and Claudette Brunson; stepchildren, Cynthia Williams, and Barbara Williams;

James to leave to cherish his memories, his wife, Barbara Lundy; children, Jimmy Ingram, Scotty Lundy, Deborah Lundy, Rozett Jackson and Joseph White; stepchildren, Samuel Williams and Joseph Williams; granddaughter, Emerald; brothers, Donald McClendon (Linda), Jeffery Lundy, Jay Lundy (Calesti) and Jimmy Lundy; sisters, Jackquelyn Clark (Horace), Linda Barfield (George), Rosetta Borden, Sylvia McClendon, Mary Alvin (Daryl), Ruby Price (Murvin), Wanda Allen (Anthony), Rosalind Whetsl (Warren), Jacky Latherio, and Chiquita Lundy; daughter in law, Kim Hunter; sister in law, Bridgette Pitts; friends, Charles Drummond, Erine Needam of Delaware, and George Hortley of Jacksonville, Florida; and a host of other relatives and friends;
